

BEATUS VIR PSALM 111 (112)

Beatus vir, qui timet Dominum:	Blessed is the man who fears the lord:
In mandatis eius volet nimis.	He delights greatly in his commandments.
Potens in terra erit semen eius;	His seed will be mighty on earth;
Generatio rectorum benedicetur.	The generation of the upright will be blessed.
Gloria et divitiae in domo eius;	Renown and riches are in his house;
Et justitia eius manet in saeculum saeculi.	And his justice endures for ever and ever.
Exortum est in tenebris lumen rectis:	For the just there arises light in the darkness:
Misericors, et miserator et justus.	He is compassionate, and charitable, and just.
Jucundus homo qui miseretur et commodat.	Happy is the man who is full of compassion and lends.
Disponet sermones suos in iudicio:	He will guide his words with discretion:
Quia in aeternum non commovebitur.	Because he will not be moved for ever.
In memoria aeterna erit justus.	The just will be remembered forever.
Ab auditione mala non timebit.	He will not be afraid of evil tidings.
Paratum cor eius sperare in Domino;	His heart is steady, trusting in the lord;
Confirmatum est cor eius:	His heart is established:
Non commovebitur	He will not be moved,
Donec despiciat inimicos suos.	Until he gazes down at his enemies.
Dispersit, dedit pauperibus:	He has dispersed, he has given to the poor:
Justitia eius manet in saeculum saeculi,	His justice endures for ever and ever,
Cornu eius exaltabitur in gloria.	The strength of his soul will be exalted with honour.
Peccator videbit, et irascetur;	The sinner will see it, and will be aggrieved;
Dentibus suis fremet et tabescet.	He will gnash with his teeth, and crumble away.
Desiderium peccatorum peribit.	the desire of the ungodly shall perish.
