

Dabbling in the dew

Sung by Mrs Cranstone
Billingshurst, June 1907

Sussex song

Noted by George Butterworth
arr. F.Reyes

Vox principalis

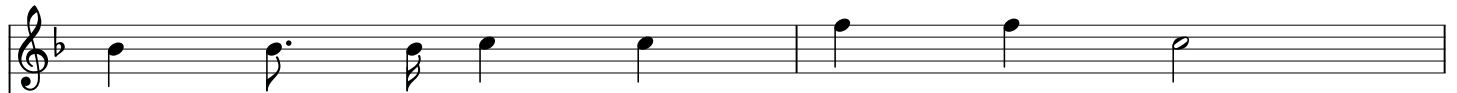

1."Where are you go - ing to, my pre - ty fair maid,
2."Shall/I go a - long with you, my pre - ty fair maid,
3."What/will you do for clothesthen, " " " " "
4."What/will you do for boots then, " " " " "
5."Suppose/I run a - way from you, " " " " "

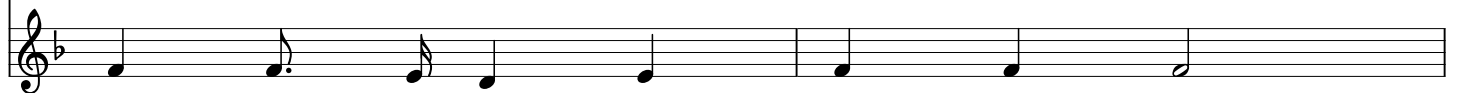

1."Where are you go - ing to, my pre - ty fair maid,
2."Shall/I go a - long with you, my pre - ty fair maid,
3."What/will you do for clothesthen, " " " " "
4."What/will you do for boots then, " " " " "
5."Suppose/I run a - way from you, " " " " "

3

Red ros - y cheeks and coal - back eye?"
" " " " " " "
" " " " " " "
" " " " " " "

Red ros - y cheeks and coal - back eye?"
" " " " " " "
" " " " " " "
" " " " " " "

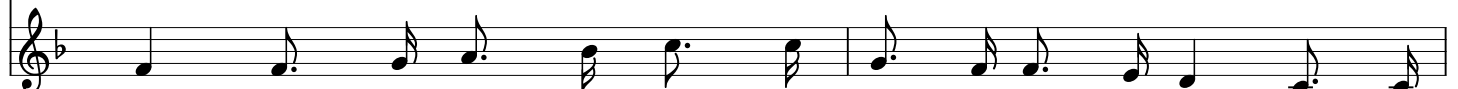

"I'm going a - milk - ing,
 "You can do as/you please,
 "My uncle/is a linen draper,
 "My brother/is a shoe - maker,
 "Why/the devil run after you,

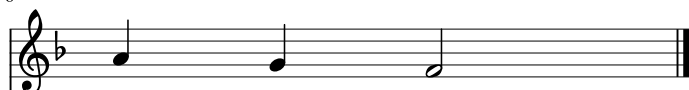

"I'm going a - milk - ing,
 "You can do as/you please,
 "My uncle/is a linen draper,
 "My brother/is a shoe - maker,
 "Why/the devil run after you,

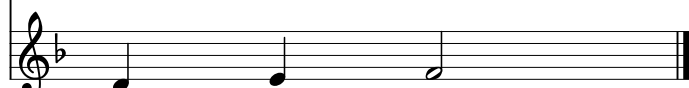

kind sir," she an - swered me, "For ro - ving in the dew makes the kind sir," " " " " " " " " " " " "
 " " " " " " " " " " " "
 " " " " " " " " " " " "
 I/would stand and laugh at you, " " " " " " " "

kind sir," she an - swered me, "For ro - ving in the dew makes the
 kind sir," " " " " " " " " " " " "
 " " " " " " " " " " " "
 " " " " " " " " " " " "
 I/would stand and laugh at you, " " " " " " " "

milk - maids fair."
 " " "
 " " "
 " " "

milk - maids fair."
 " " "
 " " "
 " " "