

Dies festa colitur

Edited by Leah Stuttard,
English lyrics by Saskia Wesnigk-Wood

1 Di-es fes-ta co-li - tur, tan-ge sym-pho - ni - am, nam pu - er qui nas-ci - tur iux-ta

1. On this day a child is born who will be a lea -- der, and will mend what has been torn when the
2. On this day the simple sage, in her sol-emn modest way, shows more wisdom than her age; at a
3. On this day it is fore-told by the Pro-phets that a light, wielded by a sav-iour bold, helps us pro - phe - ti - am, ut gy - gas e - gre - di - tur ad cur - ren - dam vi - am.

world can see her, she's a gi - ant of the dawn; bang the drum for Gre --- ta!
time when she should play, with the world she does en - - gage; bang the drum for Feast Day!
through the darkest night when the young must lead the old; bang the drum - a good fight!

Fe - lix est e - gres - si - o per - quam fit re - mis - si - o!

We are glad to hear the call, lis --- ten chil - dren lis -- ten all!