

The Bailiff's Daughter of Islington

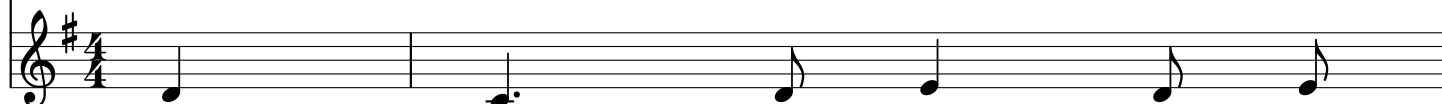

Sussex song

Arr. Fernando Reyes

Vox principalis

1. There was a youth, and a
2. As soon as/his fath - er
3. And when/he had served his
4. As he/was a rid - ing

1. There was a youth, and a
2. As soon as/his fath - er
3. And when/he had served his
4. As he/was a rid - ing

2

well bred youth, And he was a squire's came for to know His fond and fool - ish sev - en long years, His true love he ne'er had out one day, The weather be - ing fine and

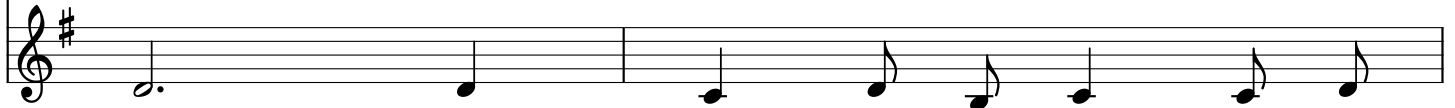

well bred youth, and he was as-quire's
came for to know his fond and fool - ish
sev - en long years, His true love he ne'er had
out one day, The weather be - ing fine and

4

son, And he fell in love with the mind, He sent him a - way up to seen; Whilst he had shed many a dry, He thought he saw his

son, and he fell in love with the mind, he sent him a - way ul to seen; Whilst he had shed many a dry, He thought he saw his

6

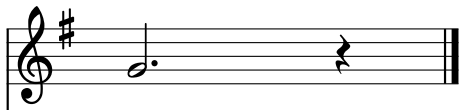

bai-liff's daugh-ter dear, That liv'd in fair Is - ling - fair Lon-don tow As app - rent - tice there to tear for her, She little had thought of own true love, As he/was a - rid - ing

bai-liff's daugh-ter dear, that liv'd in fair Is - ling -
 fair Lon-don tow as app - rent - tice there to tear for her, She little had thought of
 own true love, As he/was a - rid - ing

8

ton. bind.
 him.
 by...

ton.
 bind.
 him.
 by...